

Gittens Information Systems B.V.

Welcome! Thank you for dropping by at my spot on the web.

On this site I would like to share with you thoughts on topics which have captured my sustained interest. I invite to have a look around and hopefully you will find something which is beneficial or pleasant to you.

Finally, I need to say that this site is a work in progress. You also need to keep in mind that I am a borderline dislexic. So I apologize in advance for my inevitable grammatical and typographical mistakes.

Cheers!
